Hello Freshmen Parents and Guardians!

We are very excited that your child will be attending Brighton High School and we are looking forward to meeting your student at Freshmen Orientation on Tuesday, August 21st. We know that making the transition from middle school to high school is exciting, but can also be stressful and we want to support your student through this change. We are here to help every freshmen feel more comfortable at school as well as help them achieve success their first year of high school. Please feel free to contact your assistant principal or the counseling center with any questions or concerns you may have.
